ITALY:  ROME, UMBRIA & FLORENCE

UMBRIA IS THE HEART OF ITALY, a landscape of vineyards and medieval hill towns redolent of the Renaissance. There are rich troves of art and architecture to explore in the capital city of Perugia and in Assisi, Birthplace of Saint Francis. On this drive, you'll discover the attractions of Orvieto, Todi and Spoleto. Then you'll enter Tuscany, a landscape of dome-smooth verdant hills with perfect lines of tall cypresses and fields of wild poppies. You may stumble upon a Fra Angelico fresco and Etruscan ruins, or discover the best bottle of Chianti Classico you've ever uncorked. There are art treasures in Siena and Slow Food restaurants in Greve to visit. Count on seeing half-forgotten villages with medieval churches and landmarks that seem little changed for centuries. And with the grand cities of Rome and Florence as bookends, this promises to be a true immersion in the best of Italian life, food and culture.
